COMMITTEE ON INSTRUCTIONAL DEVELOPMENT (INDEV) ANNUAL REPORT 2016-2017

By Don Jordan Chair.

This report consists of the following items.

1. This page Summary
2. Members as of spring 2017
3. List of meeting dates and activities.
4. INDEV Committee Charge/Definition.

During the 2016-2017 academic year, the Faculty Senate Committee on Instructional Development (INDEV) focused on providing consistent, meaningful feedback to proponents based on the submission of their syllabi. We made extensive use of the Academic Programs Proposal System (APPS) which was utilized for electronic submissions. _We found that assigning one committee member to lead the discussion on one of the proposed course worked well, save time and labor for the committee._

We elected Michael Weisenburg as Chair for 2017-18 on February 23, 2017.

We owe 10^{24} (YOTTA) of thanks to all committee members of INDEV. The Committee members were sensational.

THANK YOU
don jordan

4. Committee on Instructional Development (INDEV)
Committee Charge/Definition
This committee shall review distributed learning course proposals for compliance with best practice benchmarks as defined by the university and accreditation bodies. The committee shall then recommend compliant distributed learning course proposals for approval.
The membership of the committee shall include seven faculty members elected for staggered three-year terms. The provost shall appoint four other faculty members, for staggered three-year terms, to guarantee broad representation of the colleges and academic ranks. The president of the student body shall appoint one undergraduate and one graduate student to one-year terms, to be confirmed by the Student Senate. Ex-officio members may include representatives from the Provost's Office, Distributed Learning Support Services, Center for Teaching Excellence and Graduate School.
