

Chun-Hui Miao

Department of Economics
Moore School of Business
University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC 29208

(803) 777-2583
miao@moore.sc.edu
<http://dmsweb.badm.sc.edu/miao>
Citizenship: China

Education

Princeton University, Ph.D., Economics, January 2006
Northwestern University, M.A., Psychology, 1999, Economics, 2000
Peking University, M.S., Physics, 1997
Univ. Science & Technology of China, B.S., Physics, 1994

Employment History

Assistant Professor, University of South Carolina, August 2005 – present
Lecturer, Princeton University, September 2004 – May 2005
Teaching assistant, Princeton University, September 2002 – May 2004
Teaching assistant, Northwestern University, September 1997 – May 2000

Teaching and Research Fields: Industrial Organization
Corporate Finance
Behavioral Economics

Working Papers

“Consumer Myopia, Standardization and Aftermarket Monopolization”, Jan. 2005
“Exercising Market Power Through Product Incompatibility”, Oct. 2005
“Stock Exchange Competition in Listing Standards”, Oct. 2005

Publications

“Learning by Analogical Bootstrapping”, with Gentner, D., and Kurtz, K. J., Journal of the Learning Sciences, 2001, 10, 4;
“Variational Supersymmetric WKB Approximation”, with Qian, S., Physical Review A, 1997, 56, 3;

Honors and Awards

Graduate School Fellowship, Princeton University, 2000-2004
Summer Research Fellowship, Princeton University, 2001-2004
University Fellowship, Northwestern University, 1997-2000
Guang-Hua Fellowship, Peking University, 1996