

PH.D. PROGRAM OF STUDY
INTERNATIONAL FINANCE EMPHASIS

Summer	Fall	Spring
MATH 241 Vector Calculus ²	Year 1 IBUS 801 Seminar in International Business ¹ FINA 865 Theory of Finance ECON 795 Econometrics and Regression I (MATH 241 Vector Calculus ² , if not taken in summer)	IBUS 811 Seminar in International Finance I FINA 866 Current Issues in Finance ECON 895 Econometrics and Regression II
Language and Overseas Experience ³	Year 2 IBUS 840 Seminar in Corporate Governance ECON 704 International Monetary Economics STAT 520 Forecasting and Time Series	IBUS 812 Seminar in International Finance II FINA 868 Empirical methods in Fin. Research STAT 518 Nonparametric Statistical Methods
	Year 3 ECON 786 Advanced Microeconomics FINA 869 Seminar in Financial Research Elective	Comprehensive Exam

Major Courses (5): IBUS 801, 811, 812, 840; FINA 865
 Research Core (6): Math 241 or 544; STAT 518, 520; ECON 795, 895.
 Cognate: ECON 786, ECON704; FINA 866, FINA868, FINA869

¹ Prior to enrolling in IBUS 801, students will generally have completed the prerequisites, Survey of International Business (IBUS 700) and International Financial Management (IBUS 701), or equivalent.

² Prerequisite. If satisfied beforehand, substitute MATH 544.

³ The timing and extent of language training and overseas experience depend on the student's language competency and experience. This guide indicates summer of year 2, however, in some cases, this may be accomplished in year 3.