

MOORE INFORMATION

THIS WEEK

Diwali

Diwali, also known as the "Festival of Lights", is celebrated by Hindus across the globe. There are a few different origins to the festival, but perhaps the most prominent of them is the homecoming of King Rama, a deity in Hindu mythology, after a 14-year exile in the forest. Today, the lights signify the victory of good over evil within every human being.

Come celebrate Diwali with the Student Association with food, music and dance!

Friday, November 14th, 6-9pm
Capstone Campus Room

Fall 2008 Officers

Co-chairs

Andy Allen
Kelly Purvis

Alumni Relations

Hiroko Yazawa-Sekimoto

Finance

John Chappell

Social Chairs

Jaie Neubauer
Lisa Mathew
Vinoth John Peter

Website/Newsletter

Jenny Chen

First Year Representatives

Joe Braun
Andy Siegler
Rhett McCraw
Lisa Fiacco
Mike Noble
Kelly Truesdale

www.imba-sa.org

TAILGATING

Our final tailgating for the Arkansas game was a great success. We would like to thank everyone for coming out, and don't forget to support the Gamecocks in their final two games of the season against Florida and Clemson.

HOLIDAY PARTY

The Graduate School will be hosting its Holiday Party on Saturday, December 6th. This is a formal event and will include heavy hors d'oeuvres. Tickets are $20 and are available from the SA representatives or John Whittle.

CHILI COOK-OFF

The Doctoral Student Association is putting on a Chili cook-off on Thursday, November 20th at 4:30pm on the 8th floor of the Moore School. IMBA students are invited to attend and enter in the competition. For more information, contact Jaie Neubauer at jaie_neubauer@moore.sc.edu.

